

Funding

In some states, state funding for charter schools is reported as state funding for the school district where the charter school is located or as state funding for the school district where charter students reside. This report describes how state funding for charter schools is reported.

---

Alabama State funding for some charter schools in Alabama is reported separately while for other charter schools, state funding is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.

State funding for charter schools that had not previously been a traditional public school are reported separately from state funding for any district. Funding for charter schools that had been converted from a traditional public school to a charter school is included in funding for the school district to which the charter school belongs.

---

Alaska State funding for charter schools in Alaska is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.

---

Arizona State funding for charter schools in Arizona is reported separately from state funding for any district.

---

Arkansas State funding for some charter schools in Arkansas is reported separately while for other charter schools, state funding is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.

State funding for charter schools that had not previously been a traditional public school is reported separately from state funding for any district. Funding for charter schools that had been converted from a traditional public school is included in funding for the school district to which the charter school belongs.

---

California State funding for some charter schools in California is reported separately while for other charter schools, state funding is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.

Charter schools in California may choose to receive their funding directly or through a local school district. Funding for charter schools that elect to receive their state funding directly is reported separately, while funding for charter schools that elect to receive their funding through a school district is reported as part of funding for that district.

---

Colorado State funding for charter schools in Colorado is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.

For charter schools authorized by local school districts, state funding is reported as part of funding for that district. For charter schools authorized by the State Charter School Institute, state funding is reported as part of funding for the institute.

---

Connecticut State funding for charter schools in Connecticut is reported separately from state funding for any district.

---

Delaware State funding for charter schools in Delaware is reported separately from state funding for any district.

---

District of Columbia

---

Florida State contacts did not confirm how state funding for charter schools in Florida is reported.

---

Georgia	State funding for charter schools in Georgia is reported separately while for other charter schools, state funding for charter schools is reported as part of funding for the district where the charter school is located. State funding for charter schools that are authorized by the state is reported separately from state funding for any district. Funding for charter schools that are authorized by a local school district are reported as part of funding for that district.
Hawaii	State funding for charter schools in Hawaii is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Idaho	State funding for charter schools in Idaho is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Illinois	State funding for charter schools in Illinois is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.
Indiana	State funding for charter schools in Indiana is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Iowa	State funding for charter schools in Iowa is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.
Kansas	State funding for charter schools in Kansas is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.
Kentucky	Kentucky does not currently have any charter schools.
Louisiana	State funding for charter schools in Louisiana is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Maine	State funding for some charter schools in Maine is reported separately while state funding for other charter schools is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located. State funding for charter schools authorized by the state are reported separately from state funding for any district. State funding for charter schools that are authorized by a local school district are reported as part of funding for the school district to which the charter school belongs.
Maryland	State funding for charter schools in Maryland is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.
Massachusetts	State funding for charter schools in Massachusetts is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Michigan	State funding for charter schools in Michigan is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Minnesota	State funding for charter schools in Minnesota is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Mississippi	State funding for charter schools in Mississippi is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Missouri	State funding for charter schools in Missouri is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Montana	Montana does not have a law establishing charter schools. The State Board of Public Education in Montana has established a process whereby school districts may apply to have one of their schools designated a charter. However, Montana has no state law pertaining to charter schools or charter school funding. State funding for schools designated as a charter would continue to be reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.
Nebraska	Nebraska does not have a law establishing charter schools.
Nevada	State funding for charter schools in Nevada is reported separately from state funding for any district.

New Hampshire	State contacts did not confirm how state funding for charter schools in New Hampshire is reported.
New Jersey	State funding for charter schools in New Jersey is reported as part of state funding for the school district(s) where charter students reside.  However, the portion of state and local funding that goes to charter schools is reported separately for each charter school.
New Mexico	State funding for charter schools in New Mexico is reported separately from state funding for any district.  State funding for charter schools is reported separately, but federal funding and funding for capital outlay for charter schools may be reported as part of funding for local school districts.
New York	State funding for charter schools in New York is reported separately from state funding for any district.
North Carolina	State funding for charter schools in North Carolina is reported separately from state funding for any district.
North Dakota	North Dakota does not have a law establishing charter schools.
Ohio	State funding for charter schools in Ohio is reported as part of state funding for the school district(s) where charter students reside.  However, the Ohio Department of Education removes funding attributable to charter students from local school districts in reporting state funding.
Oklahoma	State funding for charter schools in Oklahoma is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Oregon	State funding for charter schools in Oregon is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Pennsylvania	State funding for charter schools in Pennsylvania is reported as part of state funding for the school district(s) where charter students reside.
Rhode Island	State contacts did not confirm how state funding for charter schools in Rhode Island is reported.
South Carolina	State funding for charter schools in South Carolina is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.
South Dakota	South Dakota does not have a law establishing charter schools.
Tennessee	State funding for some charter schools in Tennessee is reported separately while for other charter schools, state funding is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.  State funding for charter schools authorized by the State Board of Education is reported separately from state funding for any district. State funding for charter schools authorized by local school districts is reported as part of state funding for that district.
Texas	State funding for some charter schools in Texas is reported separately while for other charter schools, state funding is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.  State funding for charter schools authorized by the State Board of Education is reported separately from state funding for any district. State funding for charter schools authorized by local school districts is reported as part of state funding for that district.
Utah	State funding for charter schools in Utah is reported separately from state funding for any district.
Vermont	Vermont does not have a law establishing charter schools.

Virginia	State funding for charter schools in Virginia is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.
Washington	State funding for charter schools in Washington is reported separately from state funding for any district.
West Virginia	West Virginia does not have a law establishing charter schools.
Wisconsin	State funding for some charter schools in Wisconsin is reported separately while for other charter schools, state funding is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located. State funding for charter schools authorized by entities other than local school districts, such as institutions of higher education and eligible cities and counties, is reported separately from state funding for any district. Meanwhile, funding for charter schools that are authorized by a local school district are counted as funding for the authorizing district.
Wyoming	State funding for charter schools in Wyoming is reported as part of state funding for the school district where the charter school is located.

For a complete list of primary sources, please see the appropriate state page at charters.funded.edbuild.org

